

Report: Intra-College Folk Dance Competition 2026

On January 27, 2026, the Women's Cell of Jagannath Singh College organized an Intra-College Folk Dance Competition as part of the college's Annual Social Week. The event commenced at 11 a.m in the college auditorium, which was filled with an enthusiastic audience of students and faculty members. The program was coordinated by Dr. Susmita Mitra, Assistant Professor in the Department of English and Coordinator of the Women's Cell.

A total of three teams participated, showcasing the rich cultural heritage of folk traditions through their energetic performances and colorful costumes. The performances were evaluated by a panel of judges, including Dr. Basabi Paul Sen and Dr. Nandita Das, both Assistant Professors from the Department of Bengali, along with Brinda Roy, a member of the college office staff.

After a series of captivating performances, the team of Bijli Urang, Sonali Ree, and Mahima Ree from the 4th semester emerged as the winners, impressing the judges with their coordination and grace. The 1st runner-up position was secured by Suhani Sutradhar and Bandana Roy from the 6th semester. The event concluded with a vote of thanks, celebrating the spirit of cultural diversity and student talent

Dr. S Somarendro Singha
Principal
Jagannath Singh College
Udharbond, Cachar, Assam

Dr. Susmita Mitra
Coordinator
Women's Cell
Jagannath Singh College
Udharbond, Cachar, Assam