

Unveiling of "Muse": A Milestone for Jagannath Singh College

On 29th January, 2025 Jagannath Singh College marked the successful conclusion of its Social Week with a significant academic achievement: the formal unveiling of "Muse". This maiden publication by the Department of English is a prestigious ISBN-registered scholarly book, representing a major step forward for the institution's academic profile.

The collection is a rich tapestry of research papers, specifically curated as a tribute to the diverse cultures and traditions of North East India. By blending artistic expression with rigorous scholarly inquiry, the book serves as both a cultural record and a platform for intellectual discourse.

The ceremony was graced by a distinguished gathering of educators and scholars from across the Barak Valley. Notable guests included Senior Professor H. Nani Kumar Singha, Department of Manipuri, Assam University, Silchar, Dr. Panna Deb, Associate Professor, Department of Environmental Science, Assam University, and veteran educator Sri Kshounish Chakraborty. Alongside Sri Somnath Deb, President of the College Governing Body, and ex. President Sri Surja Kumar Sarma. The guests highly praised the quality and vision of the publication. This maiden volume stands as a proud testament to the dedication of the English Department in fostering a spirit of research and creativity within the college.
