Welcome Address and Vote of Thanks by Dr. Susmita Paul, Assistant Professor, Department of Economics, Jagannath Singh College

The event was hosted by Dr. Koushik Nath, Assistant Professor, Department of English, Jagannath Singh College

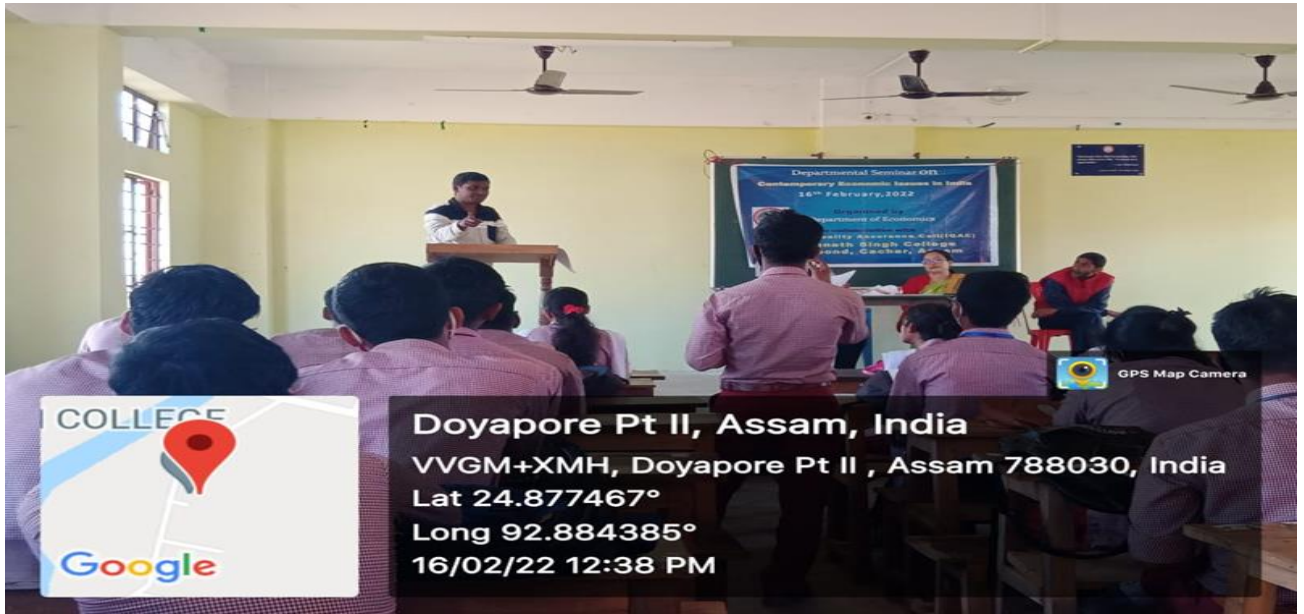

The resource person was felicitated by Anita Singha, Assistant Professor and Head, Department of Manipuri, Jagannath Singh College.

Introduction of the programme was given by Dr. Minhaj Uddin Barbhuiya, Assistant Professor and Head, Department of Economics of the college. He said that COVID-19 had adversely affected all the sectors of the economy. India is one of the fastest growing economy in the world. There is need for revival for sustaining the growth. Job creation is thrust area in India. The country’s labour force is rapidly increasing due to growth of employment and transfer of workers from agriculture to more remunerative non-agricultural sectors. So, job creation by keeping the growth rate around 8% is a challenge for our economy. Also the pandemic adversely affected all economic sectors. Social security, job creation, economic growth etc. are the major economic issues.

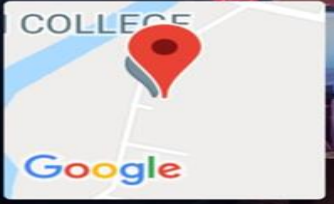

Invited resource person Dr. Sandip Debnath also delivered lecture on relevant economic issues in India.

The vote of thanks was given by Dr. Susmita Paul, Assistant Professor, Department of Economics, Jagannath Singh College.

Debate Competition by Department of English

A REPORT ON DEBATE COMPETITION

Dated: 25- 08-2022

Name of the activity: A Debate Competition on the motion "Shakespeare is no longer relevant."

Details of the activity: In keeping with the academic calendar 2021-22, a debate competition was held in department of English, Jagannath Singh College, Udharbond on 25/08/2022. The motion of the debate was "Shakespeare is no longer relevant to present society" in which some of the students took part for the motion and some of them were against the motion.

The students who took part against the motion told about Shakespeare and his contribution to English and world literature, his popularity and his influence on later poets and dramatist. They also argued how Shakespeare's dramas are adapted in films and translated into various languages, his quotations and soliloquies used in day to day life.

Students who were for the motion then contended the statement saying that though Shakespeare contributed to English literature a lot, but none of his writing are original. Shakespeare sourced his plots and characters from historical accounts and classical texts. They also argued that the language in which Shakespeare wrote is referred to as Early Modern English which is not relevant today. The bombastic phrases that Shakespeare used in his writing are not understood by common men. The characters of his plays especially tragedies were the higher class people: the Kings, Queens and Princes etc and therefore their pain and suffering is unable to touch the rustic common people. To say in one word, his writing is all about the people of higher class and he is a great writer only for scholars.

Dr.Susmita Mitra, Assistant Professor, Dept. of English, who judged the debate, appreciated the participants who had put forward their own views on Shakespeare. Altogether four students having DSC English as subject took part in the competition and 33 students from other departments took part as audience. Each of the competitors tried their best to establish their views which was well enjoyed by the audience and the judge as well. Pooja Roy of TDC 2nd semester was awarded as the best debater in the competition.

Educational Trip by Department of English

Report of the Departmental Educational trip:

Date:- 24th December 2021

Name of the activity:- Educational trip to a place of historical interest.

Details of the activity: In keeping with the departmental action plan of 2021-22, the department of English undertook an educational trip to Khaspur, in collaboration with IQAC as a part of extension activity. The trip was undertaken on 24th December 2021, in order to familiarize the students about the history of the then Kachhari Kingdom of Cachar, to facilitate them earn knowledge about the local history. As history is an integral part of literature and plays a pivotal role in forming literature, students were given various information of the then Kachhari kingdom and were encouraged to engage themselves in some creative and critical writing based on their experiences. After visiting and witnessing the various historical monuments and hallmarks there, the students took part in an on spot essay competition on the theme. They jotted down vividly their experiences of the trip. The winners of the essay competition were: Meenakshi Singha(1st position), Aziza Aktar Laskar (2nd position) and Sahina Khanam Laskar (3rd position). Total 35 students of the department took part in it. Dr Susmita Mitra and Dr. Koushik Nath, Assistant professors of the department assisted the students to guide them in the trip.
