

Report on
A One-day Orientation Programme
on
Prospects of Self-employment in Dairy Farming
at Jagannath Singh College, Udharbond, Cachar, Assam.

Date: 11-05-2022

Organiser: Career Counselling Cell, Jagannath Singh College Udharbond, Cachar, Assam.

Collaborator: Internal Quality Assurance Cell of Jagannath Singh College, Udharbond.

Resource Person: Muktadir Hussain Choudhary, Dairy Farmer and the owner of Bhagirath India.

Objective of the programme: To make the students gain knowledge on prospects of self-employment in dairy farming.

Outcome of the programme: Students gained knowledge in dairy farming and got encouraged to undertake this as an option of earning livelihood.

Total no. of students attended the programme: 33

A brief summary of the programme:

- Dr.Koushik Nath, Convenor of the college Career Counselling Cell at first introduced the Resource Person to the student attendees and the teachers present.
- Payel Das, a student of TDC 4th semester welcomed the gathering.
- Dr. Koushik Nath delivered the keynote address touching upon the necessity of organising such Orientation programmes for the student community.
- Dr. Minhaj Uddin Barbhuiya, the IQAC Co-Ordinator emphasized on the various prospects of self-employment for the students after completing their graduation and reflected on the fact that Dairy Farming is one of the career options that students might choose .
- Thereafter, the Resource Person was invited to the podium to orient the students on prospects of self-employment in DAIRY FARMING.
- The Resource Person in his Orientation lecture unfolded the prospects of self-employment in dairy farming first and then touched upon its benefits followed by an interaction session between the Resource Person and the students.
- Dr. Susmita Mitra gave the vote of thanks to all present.
- Thereafter the programme came to an end.

Photograph:

